

Come here for a sec!

What? Why?

Can't we just watch the sky?

We are neighbors! Now is a good time to make yourself useful!

Do not upload my projects to online manga readers. My projects must remain free of profits.

But why the roof? It's cold at night.

Quit acting like an old woman. Big sis wants you here.

Look at the sky! We haven't had clear sky for days!

As years go by, it will become harder and harder to see the sky like this, so cherish these moments.

You want to say something, right?

... I see, so that's what happened.

Well, it's good that you two sorted it out.

Maybe this is the price for getting the zero score... Life can be pretty funny at times.

So, we are going out with So-Hui tomorrow for treats! Everyone's going, including you.

Why me? I don't even know her well.

Hey, the big sis is ordering you to go. No more questions.

Quit referring yourself as the big sis! I ask again. Why do I have to go?

I say, why not? Make as many friends as possible. What's wrong with that?

Now that I am, I'm sure both of you, my grades will improve surely!

Killing two birds with one stone!

Why are you being nice to me?

There aren't much I can do for you...

Do you really think I go around making friends for something in return?

But if you insist..., I can wait until 21 century.

Isn't the end of world year 1999? If that is correct, we don't have much time.

I don't live for the future. I live for the present. As long as you make me a promise, that's fine.

If the world really ends... but then oh well!

The promise...

Oh, I will do it.

I will try to...

make it happen before the world ends...
